(A) Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

It was a Friday morning. Crusoe was sitting outside his tent. Suddenly, he heard a strange uproar. He looked around and saw a boat full of savages landed on the island. They had with them another man whose hands and legs were tied. They lit a fire and began to dance around. Crusoe realized that they were cannibals and they were going to eat the captive man as was their custom. He took out his gun and fired several shots in the air. The men were scared. They have never heard gunfire before. They ran towards their boat and sailed away leaving the poor prisoner behind.
